JOB DESCRIPTION:

NUS DELEGATE.

ROLE DETAILS.

NUS (which stands for the National Union of Students) Delegates represent the views of Royal Holloway students at NUS National Conference - where people from all over the country come together as a national movement to debate, discuss and agree ideas.

NUS Conference takes place each spring, runs for three days and has almost 1400 people attending. In 2023, the conference is being held from 15-16 March at the Harrogate Convention Centre.

All delegates would need to be available to attend on these dates.

There will also be a range of 'fringe' events during the breaks which will look at national campaigns and other activities.

All expenses are paid for your attendance, including travel, accommodation and registration.

Your Officer team attend this conference on your behalf to represent your views and feed into the topics raised by students across the UK. This means that Maia Jarvis (President), Shrijeet Shrey (VP Education) and Hannah Hockin (VP Societies and Sport) will be attending the conference, but due to the recent resignation of VP Wellbeing & Diversity, one position remains vacant.

All delegates must have been elected by a cross-campus ballot so we've called an election to fill this remaining post.

>> AN NUS DELEGATE WILL:

- Attend and engage in debate and discussion at the NUS Conference
- Vote in motions in line with RHSU policy (if/where required)
- Vote in line with the views of yourself and your peers where RHSU policy does not set a precedent

>> WHY YOU SHOULD GO:

- Great CV builder and networking opportunity
- Chance to become more involved in the Union and student politics on a national stage
- A chance to shape the student experience

Any current Royal Holloway student is eligible to stand for this position.
