JOB DESCRIPTION:

NUS DELEGATE.

WELCOME.

Royal Holloway Students' Union (RHSU) exists for one simple reason: to make student life better at Royal Holloway. As a registered charity with a turnover of approximately £6m, it employs nearly 50 permanent staff and over 400 student staff, delivering a range of services from bars, shops, an advice centre, sports clubs, societies, media groups and supporting academic reps and campaigners.

ROLE DETAILS.

NUS (National Union of Students) Delegates represent the views of Royal Holloway students at NUS National Conference - where people from all over the country come together as a national movement to debate, discuss and agree ideas.

This year's conference, which is running from 28-29 March at ACC Liverpool, is particularly special as 2022 marks NUS' centenary.

It's not only a time to celebrate the achievements of the last 100 years - pushing society forward on issues such as war, facism, oppression, poverty, and universal public services - but also to think of the next 100 years. You can expect a high-energy, impactful space - moving away from reacting to the symptoms of the biggest issues facing students, and instead going after the root causes.

All delegates would need to be available to attend on these dates. All expenses are paid for your attendance, including travel, accommodation and registration.

>> AN NUS DELEGATE WILL:

- Attend and engage in debate and discussion at the NUS Conference
- Vote on motions in line with RHSU policy (if/where required)
- Vote in line with the views of yourself and your peers where RHSU policy does not set a precedent

>> WHY YOU SHOULD GO:

- Great CV builder and networking opportunity
- Chance to become more involved in the Union and student politics on a national stage
- A chance to shape the student experience throughout the UK

Any registered student is eligible to be a candidate for NUS Delegate.
